United States of America's Supplemental Designation of the Record on Appeal

The United States of America (the "United States"), acting on behalf of its Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS"), files this Supplemental Designation of the Record on Appeal. This filing does not designate any additional items to be included in the record. Instead, the United States makes this filing to comply with the requirement to electronically file copies of admitted trial exhibits designated by the United States for inclusion in the record, except those exhibits which are already on file with the Bankruptcy Court.

Dated: June 21, 2019.

Respectfully submitted,

RYAN K. PATRICK,
United States Attorney
